"Richard is an outstanding advocate and knows the planning system like the back of his hand." Chambers and Partners 2022

Richard specialises in planning, environment, art and public law, acting for developers, landowners, central and local government, individuals and interest groups. He appears in the courts, inquiries, examinations and hearings, including frequently in the Planning Court and appellate courts. He has appeared in many of the leading cases of recent years.

His public law work includes local government, procurement and funding decisions. He also deals regularly with art law, particularly with a regulatory focus.

Richard is the author of the standard suite of planning law books Planning Enforcement, Historic Environment Law, Planning Permission and, as co-author, Planning Policy.

A member of the Bar Library, Belfast, he acts regularly in Northern Ireland. Richard is an Attorney-at-Law in Saint Lucia and has appeared recently in the Eastern Caribbean Court of Appeal.

-- Environmental Assessment

Richard has appeared in many of the leading environmental impact assessment (EIA) and strategic environmental assessment (SEA) cases since 2000 for authorities, developers and third parties. He brought the cases which established how to approach mitigation in EIA screening (Lebus), the scope of urban development projects (Goodman), the duty to give reasons (Mellor), the need for development consent for demolition (SAVE Britain's Heritage), consideration of reasonable alternatives in SEA (Heard) and the unlawfulness of the offshore oil and gas regime (Garrick-Maidment).

Cases of note

- Greenpeace Vorlich (2019-2022) - Acting in the English judicial review and the Scottish proceedings to the Supreme Court on the relevance of greenhouse gases from oil and gas consumption.
- R (Garrick-Maidment) v Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy (2019) - A challenge to offshore gas exploration. Richard established that the 1990 Offshore Petroleum Environmental Impact Assessment Regulations were unlawful.
- Heard v Broadland DC [2012] EWHC 344 (Admin) [2012] Env. L.R. 23 - Remission of 12,000 houses and commercial development in Greater Norwich on strategic environmental assessment grounds.
- Save Britain's Heritage v Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government [2011] EWCA Civ 334, [2011] P.T.S.R. 1140 - Established that demolition was subject to the EIA Directive. Consequently the exclusion of the demolition of commercial buildings from planning control was unlawful.
- R (on the application of Mellor) v Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government [2009] EWCA Civ 1201 - Court of Justice of the European Union decision that reasons had to be given on request for environmental decisions, in that case that EIA was not required.
- R (on the application of Lebus) v South Cambridgeshire DC [2002] EWHC 2009 (Admin) [2003] Env. L.R.17 - Challenge to decision not to require EIA of a poultry unit. The court held that EIA could not be avoided because information would be provided anyway or because of an assumption that mitigation, which was other than straightforward, would work.

Recommendations
