Environment

"Christiaan gives very commercial advice" (Head of Property, Wolseley Group)

Christiaan is a commercial environmental lawyer, having a comprehensive practice in environmental law, policy and regulation, both on a domestic and international scale. He acts for clients such as the Environment Agency, OfGem, Exxon Mobil, Alcatel Aluminium, Jersey Gas, Jersey Electricity plc, the Wolseley Group, Spirit Energy, Shui Wing Steel, and local authorities including London Borough of Greenwich, Uttlesford District Council, and Bath and North East Somerset Council on a wide range of environmental matters and their regulation.

Christiaan is well versed in the importance to businesses, developers, and government of properly identifying environmental issues and their scope, environmental liabilities, assessing short, medium, long-term and residual risk, and forward planning for and mitigating of such risks, to enable them to achieve their objectives.

Christiaan's scope of expertise includes environmental transactions, residual liabilities, consenting and environmental permitting, and environmental litigation (including avoiding litigation). He is an expert in issues involving contamination, nitrates, waste, water, air, biodiversity and habitats, climate change, environmental assessments, environmental enforcement, nuclear and radiation matters, nuisances, and environmental taxes including aggregates levy and landfill taxes.

Christiaan's breadth of understanding and experience and joined-up thinking means that he provides a one-stop shop service to clients.
