"One of the rising stars at 39 Essex Chambers." Chambers and Partners

"She is very straight-talking, and will stick her neck out. She is a phenomenal barrister in terms of her technical argument and her ability to tailor them to different people." Chambers and Partners

"A client-focused, tenacious and pragmatic litigator." Legal 500

Sadie is a senior junior whose personal injury practice concentrates on catastrophic injury work and fraud. She is adept at handling complicated liability disputes concerning road traffic accidents (particularly those involving vulnerable road users), employer liability and related claims, and is known for providing detailed, forensic and realistic advice in difficult claims.

Her sound judgment is recognised by claimant and defendant lawyers alike and she is regularly instructed as sole Counsel in multimillion pound claims: in 2020 Sadie achieved settlements totalling over £12m for two catastrophically injured claimants.

Sadie is particularly adept at managing claims involving pain syndromes and enjoys getting involved in such cases at an early stage in proceedings to assist with planning tactics and strategies.

As a leading name in PI fraud work, Sadie's practice in this area is focused on defendant work and she has been instructed in many of the major cases in recent times including Summers v Fairclough Homes, Fari v Homes for Haringey (the first strike out using the power declared by the Supreme Court in Summers) and Sandip Atwal v Calderdale and Huddersfield NHS Trust (discontinuance in the face of overwhelming evidence of fraud followed by the first committal brought by the NHSR).

Sadie has extensive experience of group litigation. She is currently leading a team of juniors within Chambers on hundreds of police overtime claims arising from the Court of Appeal decision in Allard and others v Chief Constable of Devon and Cornwall Constabulary. Sadie also has experience of dealing with over 30 linked professional negligence cases relating to the police pension scheme, and was a junior on the Capper Pass Claims Review Scheme, a multi-million pound scheme established by Rio Tinto plc to deal with multiple industrial diseases claims arising from a metal reclamation plant in Humberside.

Recent cases include:

- BGR v AJ (2020): above knee amputation case. Sole Counsel. Settled pre-litigation for over £3.5 million
- KT v JP (2020): serious pelvic injuries to pregnant claimant with pre-existing chronic fatigue syndrome. Case settled at virtual JSM at significant saving for defendant.
- BG v RM and EUI Ltd (2019/2020): serious lower limb injuries to motorcyclist. Schedule in excess of £2m. Case settled on a commercial basis after Sadie prevailed at a contested application for evidence concerning co-morbid issue of sarcoidosis.
- MG v KCC, FD, SP (2019): complicated liability case involving black ice and winter maintenance issues concerning two accidents in quick succession which led to a below knee amputation. Primary liability not admitted. Contributory negligence in issue. Sole Counsel instructed against two Silks and Senior Junior of 25+ years Call. Pre-litigation mediation failed but the case settled for £1m+ shortly after Sadie's pleadings were served.
- Everett v Dyer [2019] EWHC 2049 (QB) – liability trial of motorcycle vs van claim acting for the claimant who had paraplegia as a result of the accident. Silk opposition. Deduction for contributory negligence limited to 25% and claimant bettered his own Part 36 offer. Case proceeds as regards quantum.

Historic abuse cases

Sadie has experience in handling historic sexual abuse claims acting for both claimants and defendants. She has advised on claims involving grooming and the abuse of children, and sexual assault involving adults. Sadie is sensitive to the needs of her clients, whether they be the alleged victim or perpetrator, and gives practical and commercial advice in clear terms in order to assist in the appropriate resolution of any claim.

Inquests

Sadie has extensive experience in the Coroner's Court including inquests involving deaths in custody, deaths in the workplace and road traffic accidents.
