"A strategic thinker, who is well suited to complex international disputes." The Legal 500

Ben provides advisory and advocacy services across a broad range of international commercial disputes in England and other jurisdictions in relation to both court and arbitration proceedings. He has acted as sole or junior counsel before courts at all levels in England and in arbitrations under all the principal sets of arbitral rules. He has particular experience working in Asia and for Asian clients, having lived and worked in the region for many years.

Ben's recent work has been principally in the general commercial, international trade and commodities, construction (infrastructure and vessels), insurance/reinsurance, energy, natural resources, and shipping/carriage of goods sectors. That work includes substantive hearings as well as applications for interim and post-judgment relief. Much of that work is of a multi or cross-jurisdictional nature involving questions of private international law and/or disputes governed by foreign laws. He has also provided expert opinions on English law for use in foreign proceedings on a range of substantive and procedural legal issues.

Ben accepts appointments as an arbitrator and has been appointed as sole arbitrator, wing and chair, in more than 40 references in matters under ICC, LCIA, LMAA, SIAC, and AIAC rules, among others, and in ad hoc proceedings. Many of these cases have involved state-owned enterprises or public sector undertakings. Governing laws have included English, Russian, Cypriot, Chinese/Hong Kong, Australian, Malaysian, Singaporean, Vietnamese and Indian. Seats have included Singapore, London, Hong Kong, Hyderabad, Delhi, Paris, Moscow, Hong Kong, and Perth. He is recommended as an arbitrator in the leading regional directories.

Ben is admitted in New South Wales (Australia) in 1999 and was an associate (Legal Assistant) to Chief Justice Gleeson of the High Court of Australia from 1999-2000. He was a Junior Counsel to the Crown (C Panel) from 2008-2013.
