Withers Khattar Wong, 80 Raffles Place, #25-01 UOB Plaza 1, Singapore 048624

About the speaker from 39 Essex Chambers

Jonathan has an established litigation, arbitration and advisory practice in commercial, insurance and construction law. His practice includes international work and arbitrations under the auspices of major European and Asian institutions including ICC, LCIA, SIAC, DIAC and KLRCA. He has international experience in Asian, Middle Eastern and African disputes.

His sector experience includes insurance and reinsurance, professional liability, infrastructure and construction & engineering, energy, oil & gas and natural resources, financial institutions and services, product distribution and agency and joint ventures.

He is recommended in the Legal Directories for being "thorough, pragmatic and tactically astute" and is listed as a leading lawyer in international commercial arbitration and litigation in the Asia Pacific region.

Jonathan is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a practising Chartered Arbitrator. He sits in all his practice areas as sole or panel arbitrator in international arbitrations by party agreement and institutional appointment.

About this Seminar:

Jonathan Bellamy will discuss the purpose, use and interpretation of aggregation clauses and event limits in insurance contracts generally and in the light of the recent appeal court judgment in AIG Europe where the courts have considered the language "similar acts or omissions in a series of related matters or transactions" in the solicitors' professional indemnity sector.

Jonathan will also provide a brief update on legal and market responses to the Insurance Act 2015, in force since August 2016.
