

Young ICCA Arbitration Debate: London, 9 November 2016

On behalf of Young ICCA, we are pleased to invite you to attend an exciting Young ICCA International Arbitration Debate. The topic of the Debate is:

What Does Brexit Mean for the Future of International Arbitration in London?

Venue: Jones Day, 21 Tudor Street, London EC4Y 0DJ

Format: Two senior arbitration practitioners will debate whether Brexit will affect London's primacy as a global centre for international arbitration. An "Arbitral Tribunal" will conduct the crossfire and open the discussion to the floor. At the end of the debate, the audience will be able to vote in favour of one position or the other. The results will be available in real time.

Programme:

5:30 – 6 pm: Registration

6 – 6:15 pm: Welcome

6:15 – 7:30 pm: Debate

Keynote speakers:

- Ms Sophie Nappert, 3 Verulam Buildings
- Mr David Brynmor Thomas, 39 Essex Chambers

The Arbitral Tribunal:

- Ms Hilary Heilbron QC, Brick Court Chambers (President)
- Ms Suzanne Spears, Volterra Fietta (co-arbitrator)
- Dr Remy Gerbay, Enyo Law (co-arbitrator)

7:30 – 9:00 pm: Cocktail reception hosted and sponsored by Jones Day

Registrations: There are a few spots still available to attend the event. You can send your expression of interest, along with your CV, to cgambarini@debevoise.com and include in the subject line "Young ICCA London".

We look forward to meeting you in London!
