'A phenomenal communicator and people person, allowing Marion to make the most complicated of points into something we can all follow. Extremely hardworking and never lets you down.' The Legal 500 2025 Construction

'Level headed and attention to detail. A calming influence in fraught situations.' The Legal 500 2025 International arbitration: arbitrators

'She always brings a fresh approach to things and is very commercial, and clients love her.' Chambers and Partners 2025 Construction

Marion is experienced as counsel representing and advising national and international clients in a wide range of business sectors, including construction, energy, engineering, infrastructure, insurance, media and transport matters. She is recognised for her expertise in adjudications, Technology and Construction Court (TCC) proceedings and international arbitration. She is well known for her ability to establish excellent working relationships with clients, experts and the legal team. Her in-depth experience in advocacy in document-heavy cases includes disputes in which the relevant law is not English law.

She is regularly appointed as an adjudicator, arbitrator (sole, party and president) and mediator handling matters across a wide range of industry sectors, legal issues and geographical regions.

Marion is recognised as a leading lawyer in many of the legal directories including, The Legal 500 2025, Chambers and Partners 2025 and Who's Who Legal UK Bar report 2024 for Construction; and The Legal 500 2025 for Energy and International arbitrators.

Marion's expertise and experience in international dispute resolution is reflected by her present roles including representing the Bar of England and Wales as Vice Chair of the Bar Council's International Committee.

Marion is also an Honorary Professor of Law, in the School of International Arbitration, Centre for Commercial Law Studies at Queen Mary University of London and a Professional Fellow at Aston University. She contributes to various publications and is in demand as a speaker at international arbitration and dispute resolution conferences worldwide.
