"An excellent advocate, particularly for CPO matters; his cross-examination is very effective." The Legal 500 (2015)

Following a career in television journalism, Brian Ash KC was called to the bar in 1975 and took silk in 1990. The main area of his practice is within the broad ambit of Public Law, with a particular focus on Planning, Compulsory Purchase and Compensation, Highways and Local Government administration. The focus on his main area of expertise began in about 1977 and he has had a continuous, busy practice since that time with projects and hearings too numerous to cite in detail.
