“An exceptionally dedicated and thorough barrister: you can count on her to leave no stone unturned and to get to the bottom of any problem you may have. She is bright, talented, and extremely committed to her cases. A natural leader, and a real asset to any legal team.” The Legal 500 2023 (Tier 3)

Samantha is a highly regarded and in-demand multi-disciplinary barrister who practises in personal injury and clinical negligence, health and safety, construction, commercial, regulatory and disciplinary law and public law. She is recognised in the legal directories for her thoroughness, forensic analysis of the evidence and her personable ability to lead and work as a team. Samantha is regularly led by silks in high-profile, complex matters. She frequently acts as sole counsel. She acts for a range of clients from individual claimants and companies to insurers, government departments, local authorities, and quasi-governmental bodies. She is a strong advocate and tactician, benefitting from extensive court and trial experience. Samantha was appointed to the Treasury Panel of Junior Counsel (C Panel) in 2018.

Before joining the Bar, Samantha achieved a distinction in her LLM from McGill University and, most notably, undertook a Judicial Assistantship at the Constitutional Court of South Africa.

Inquiries and Investigations

"An exceptionally dedicated and thorough barrister: you can count on her to leave no stone unturned and to get to the bottom of any problem you may have. She is bright, talented, and extremely committed to her cases. A natural leader, and a real asset to any legal team." The Legal 500 2023 (Tier 3)

"She is incredibly thorough, personable and very good at encouraging the team and keeping everyone on top of their work." "She is an exceptionally hard-working barrister and never misses any detail." Chambers and Partners 2022 (Up and Coming)

Samantha is a highly regarded and formidable Inquiry barrister. She has been instructed across a number of high profile Inquiries since 2017 for core participants and as counsel to the Inquiry. Most recently, Samantha has been instructed as a leading junior on the COVID-19 Inquiry by the Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency (MHRA). She has advised on the non-statutory Essex Mental Health Independent Inquiry. Most significantly, Samantha has acted as one of the most senior juniors on the Grenfell Tower Inquiry since 2018, being led by Counsel to the Inquiry, Richard Millett KC, and Andrew Kinnear KC. Samantha has been at the forefront of the inquiry's work concerning fire safety, health and safety and the actions of the London Fire Brigade and other fire and rescue services, leading two teams of junior barristers, questioning witnesses and preparing cross-examination. She possesses in-depth knowledge and experience of all aspects of the Inquiry process and the Inquiries Act 2005, from disclosure to core participant participation, witness handling and publication of rule 13 letters, and recommendations. Prior to that, Samantha was instructed on the Undercover Policing Inquiry by the Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police.

Samantha has risen through the ranks of the legal directories over the last four years in inquests and inquiries. She is now one of the most junior barristers recognised in Tier 3 of The Legal 500 for Inquests and Inquiries and she was recognised in Chambers and Partners 2022 in the 'Up and Coming' category.

Cases of note
