“Daniel is incredibly sharp, with an ability to absorb and analyse large volumes of information quickly and accurately, following which he formulates sound advice and strategy.” The Legal 500 2024

Daniel has a broad civil litigation and public law practice, specialising principally in the fields of personal injury and clinical negligence, insurance fraud, costs and litigation funding, inquests, inquiries and investigations, and health and safety. He is ranked in The Legal 500 in the areas of clinical negligence and costs.

He is a proficient and experienced advocate, having appeared in tribunals, County Courts, the Crown Court, the Coroner’s Court, and in the High Court, both led and as sole counsel. Alongside his court work, he has a busy advisory and paperwork practice.

Daniel is familiar working for a wide range of clients, from individuals to corporations and government departments. He is currently instructed as junior counsel to the Grenfell Tower Inquiry and is appointed to the Attorney General’s C Panel.

Daniel is a specialist contributor to Bullen & Leake’s Precedents of Pleadings, a contributing expert to Lexis Nexis PSL in the fields of personal injury, clinical negligence and dispute resolution, and is a trustee of Pro Bono Community, a charity that provides training and placements to law students in advice centres across London. He also volunteers for the Independent Provider of Special Education Advice (IPSEA), a charity offering legal advice to parents of children with special educational needs.

Property Damage

Daniel has a diverse property damage practice which complements his work in insurance law. He is instructed by defendants and their insurers in bringing/defending claims, claiming contribution and exercising a right of subrogation. Daniel is available to advise on cases arising in negligence, nuisance, Rylands v Fletcher, conversion or in contract.

His expertise includes:

- Cladding and construction damage
- Conversion and trespass to property
- Fire and explosions
- Flooding
- Product liability
- Storm and weather damage
- Subsidence and tree root damage
- Water penetration

Property damage claims typically involve complex issues that span a range of specialisms. Daniel's related practice areas of insurance, civil litigation and product liability render him well-placed to advise and represent parties in a range of property damage cases. In particular, his instruction on the Grenfell Tower Inquiry renders him well-placed to deal with cases arising out of damage caused by fire, as well as in construction contexts.
