Phone: +44 (0)20 7832 1111

Sam practises across the range of chambers' civil liability work, specialising principally in personal injury, clinical negligence, costs, commercial and sports matters. He also has a particular expertise in public inquiries and investigations.

He routinely represents claimants and defendants at interlocutory hearings, costs and case management conferences (CCMCs) and fast and multi-track trials. Alongside his court work, he has a busy advisory and paperwork practice.

Sam is currently instructed as junior counsel to the Grenfell Tower Inquiry.

Prior to coming to the Bar, Sam worked as a caseworker for Advocate (previously the Bar Pro Bono Unit), where he assisted litigants who were unable to privately fund their representation and were ineligible for a legal aid.

Areas of expertise

Personal Injury

Clinical Negligence

Costs Litigation

Commercial and Construction

Inquiries and Investigations

Sport

Personal Injury

Sam has a specialist personal injury practice. He routinely acts in fast and multi-track cases for both claimants and defendants. He regularly advises on tactics, liability and quantum, as well as drafting pleadings and schedules. He has extensive experience of employers' liability, public liability, occupiers' liability, Highways Act and road traffic accident (including credit hire) claims. In his early career, Sam gained considerable experience prosecuting and defending allegations of serious dishonesty in the criminal courts, so he is well-placed to act in personal injury claims involving fundamental dishonesty and fraud issues.
