Adrian Hughes KC acts as counsel and arbitrator with a broad international and UK construction and commercial practice. He focuses on complex contract disputes spanning a wide range of sectors, including construction and engineering, energy and natural resources, international trade, shipbuilding, transport and infrastructure, investment and public international law, information and communication technology and commercial disputes including agency, insurance and joint venture cases.

Whilst his domestic practice centres on the Technology & Construction Court and the Commercial Court, the majority of his work involves international arbitration and associated court proceedings. He regularly conducts commercial and construction arbitration work as counsel in many different jurisdictions. Recent cases have included major international arbitrations arising from power and infrastructure projects in Africa, the Middle East, Latin America and Asia, with seats in London, Hong Kong, Singapore, Malaysia, Dubai and China.

Adrian increasingly sits as arbitrator in international disputes, as president, party nominated arbitrator or sole arbitrator, appointed by all the main international institutions. He also acts as chairperson and member of dispute boards for international construction projects as well as mediator and adjudicator.

He has a leading practice relating to China and regularly conducts advocacy and advisory work involving Chinese parties. Recent cases have included a number of prominent international arbitration and court cases in, and related to, China. He is instructed as expert to the Great Britain China Centre / Foreign Office on UK / China Arbitration and Dispute Resolution, and is on the advisory board of the Oxford University Belt and Road Institute directed at the impact of China's outbound investment policy. He acts as expert witness on English law issues and was the first English barrister to act in this capacity in Chinese commercial court proceedings.

His early practice included extensive Supreme Court and Commercial Court proceedings arising from the collapse of the International Tin Council, involving issues of public and private international law relating to the enforceability of arbitration awards against an international organisation and its Member States. This experience carries through to public and private international law issues arising in his current work.

He sits as a part time judge, having for a number of years acted as Recorder and Examiner of the Court, and has recently been appointed to the Court of Appeal of the Falkland Islands and South Georgia. He is a past Chair of the UK Society of Construction Law (SCL), the country's leading multi-disciplinary construction law association.

Construction, Engineering and Infrastructure

Adrian's construction and engineering practice is closely allied to his commercial work. His international practice largely involves international arbitration of major infrastructure and energy projects. His domestic work involves large scale disputes in the Technology and Construction Court, and associated appeal proceedings, often arising from PFI, PPP or NEC partnering contracts and covering a wide range of sectors including highways, rail, hospitals, education and utilities. He is also very experienced in the conduct and enforcement of adjudications.

Experience includes:

- Representing a Chinese state owned power company in ICC London proceedings arising from the construction of the world's largest power and desalination plant in Saudi Arabia.
- Representing a Korean contractor in LCIA London proceedings arising from the construction of an Ethylene Vinyl Acetate plant in Saudi Arabia.
- Acting for a marine works contractor in connection with an ICC arbitration in Singapore arising from the construction of a desalination plant in Algeria.
- Acting for the employer in a $US2 billion dispute in the Dubai International Arbitration Centre arising from a landmark construction project in Dubai.
- Acting for and advising the UK Government (Highways Agency) in a series of disputes arising from Term Contracts for Highways Maintenance (based on the NEC3 form of contract).
- Advising a major building contractor in its dispute with a City Council arising from a major public sector housing Framework Agreement.
- Leading the team acting for local authorities in the UK in relation to a string of adjudication and court disputes arising from PFI projects for the construction and operation of schools.
- Acting for the contractor and professional advisers in a series of reported TCC cases brought by a high net worth individual arising from the development of a historic estate in Herefordshire.
- Acting for a major rail company in the UK in relation to adjudications arising from PPP term maintenance contracts for the London underground.
- Acting for the joint venture main contractor in a £100m arbitration claim arising from the construction of an underground rail extension involving complex engineering issues, delay analysis and sustainability of global claims.
- Acting in the Court of Appeal for the insurer in subrogated proceedings arising from a fire claim.
- Acting for a national supermarket chain in a multi-million pound facilities management claim brought by the contractor in connection with their contract to provide services to 370 supermarkets.
- Acting for the joint venture contractor in claims arising from PFI Hospitals contracts.
- Acting for the joint venture contractor in arbitration proceedings relating to substructure works for a major national river crossing project.
