"Absolutely phenomenal." Chambers and Partners

Alexis Hearnden is an experienced advocate with a successful regulatory and public law practice. She acts for regulators and those they regulate across a range of professions, including solicitors, doctors, dentists, fertility clinics, architects, vets, and osteopaths before tribunals, in judicial review proceedings and in statutory appeals. In the world of sport, she advises sport national governing bodies, particularly in safeguarding matters.

Alexis regularly represents family members, local authorities, health authorities and the Official Solicitor in the Court of Protection, which complements her broader public law work in the areas of mental health, community care and healthcare.

She is recommended as a leading junior by Chambers & Partners in the areas of Professional Discipline and in the Court of Protection, and by The Legal 500 for Professional Discipline. Alexis was nominated for Professional Discipline Junior of the Year at the Chambers UK Bar Awards 2020.

Regulatory

Alexis advises law firms in the context of large-scale investigations into compliance obligations and assists with reporting obligations in the event of breach. Recent work includes advising on conflicts of interest, the use of technology, regulatory considerations across a large firm/group structure, as well as under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 and Anti-Money Laundering Regulations.

She is member of the editorial board of the Law Society's "Legal Compliance Bulletin".

Alexis advises healthcare regulators on regulatory matters including published guidance (e.g. guidance on consent to treatment and capacity to consent to sex).
