Clinical Negligence

Sadie developed her long standing interest in clinical negligence work by working for the Treasury Solicitor dealing with clinical negligence claims made by prisoners for the healthcare treatment received whilst in prison. She has particular experience of dealing with claims involving:

- Delayed diagnosis
- Lack of consent to medical treatment
- Failed surgical treatments and procedures
- Claims involving failed cosmetic surgery
- Birth injury claims
- Claims arising from the loss or death of a foetus in utero

Notable cases

DH v H NHS trust and others

Sadie acted as sole counsel in a claim arising from delayed diagnosis of retinopathy of prematurity causing blindness. Sadie worked as sole Counsel with solicitor and experts to force significant causation admissions which catapulted the value of the claim into seven figures. Leading Counsel was brought in for the final stages of the quantum case and the claim settled at JSM for in excess of £4m.

MAC v N NHS trust

Acting for Defendant in defence of fatal accidents case involving allegations of negligent nursing care and failure to diagnose sepsis. Sadie worked in close harmony with her solicitors to secure the discontinuance of the claim well in advance of trial.

Atwal v Calderdale and Huddersfield NHS Foundation Trust

Acting as sole counsel for the Defendant in an £800,000+ claim involving allegations of fraudulent exaggeration. Sadie provided advice and amended the Defence and Counterschedule to make the allegations of fraud and apply to strike out the claim. In response the Claimant accepted a pre-issue offer.

Marie Stopes and BPAS

Sadie is regularly instructed to defend claims on behalf of Marie Stopes and the BPAS.
