'Incisive, has an excellent and personal approach to clients.' Legal 500

"Known for her strong work in motor insurance fraud, which sits alongside her estimable personal injury practice. She has considerable expertise of acting for defendant insurers facing issues such as staged accidents, phantom passengers and exaggerated claims." Chambers and Partners

"She delivers what is expected in a way that is client and solicitor-friendly." Chambers and Partners.

Sadie has a thriving defendant fraud practice and is ranked in Band 1 for Motor Insurance Fraud by Chambers and Partners. Her expertise includes:

- fraudulent exaggeration claims, including strike out of such claims
- staged accident
- phantom passenger
- faked accident claims
- contempt proceedings
- costs arguments arising from fraudulent claims, including the appropriate use of the offer regimes

Sadie is often involved in cases at the earliest stage of a suspicious claim and works closely with the existing team to progress the case. Using her pre-Bar experience working in the legal department at Thames Valley Police, Sadie recognizes the need to work flexibly to meet the demands of managing fraud claims and provides clear and concise advice to assist in the management of a suspicious claim towards a successful conclusion.

Reported cases

Reported cases include:

- Summers v Fairclough Homes Ltd [2012] 1 WLR 2004 – landmark fraud case in the Supreme Court establishing power to strike out claims for fraud
- Fari v Homes for Haringey (Central London CC, Oct 2012) and Homes for Haringey v Fari (QBD, Jan 2013) – first strike out of personal injury claim using the Summers powers and contempt proceedings which followed

Other notable cases include:

- AS v M Ltd, Sheffield County Court in 2017-2018. Sadie Crapper was instructed on behalf of Zurich concerning of a fraudulent claim involving exaggeration fraud in which the Claimant claimed over £1million for lifelong disability and loss of earnings. Claim was discontinued after the Defendant's evidence of fraud was served.
- DL v DXG, 2017-2018. The case concerned a claimant who alleged he had suffered an eye injury causing impairment of the sight in one eye with lifelong disability and earnings loss.
