"Paul is astonishingly quick to identify the key issues and develop coherent and persuasive arguments. He combines his hardworking nature with outstanding intellect and is a pleasure to work with." The Legal 500 2022

"Paul gives a case everything – completely focused and in command of his brief." The Legal 500 2021

"Paul is a particularly persuasive advocate, brilliant in both cross-examination and submissions." Chambers and Partners 2020

Paul was called to the Bar in 1985, building up a substantial practice in public, environmental and planning law before becoming an MP (1997-2005), during which time he served on the Home Affairs Select Committee, the Joint Committee on Human Rights and the Joint Committee on House of Lords Reform. Since returning to the Bar in May 2005, Paul rapidly rebuilt his practice and was elevated to silk within six years. Paul acts for developers, local authorities and private clients, including local campaign groups. Paul is regularly recommended in the legal directories and was named as The Times Lawyer of the week following his successful challenge against a decision to redevelop the house in which Sir Arthur Conan Doyle wrote The Hound of the Baskervilles. Paul was shortlisted for "Real Estate, Environmental and Planning Silk of the Year" at The Legal 500 UK Bar Awards 2018 and, in 2005, was elected as a Visiting Fellow to Cambridge University's Centre of Public Law.
