"Jon has a superb legal mind, an incisive way of getting to the heart of a problem, and is wholly unflappable. He has star quality." The Legal 500 2023

"...the moment he opens his mouth, people listen..." Chambers and Partners 2021

Jon's planning, environmental and property practice complements broader public and administrative law interests and his varied civil liability work. Jon appears regularly in all types of court and tribunal alongside undertaking pleading and advisory work for a wide variety of domestic and international clients, including developers, consultants, local authorities, and the Government Legal Department. He is a Member of the Attorney General's B Panel of Counsel and sits as a Chair on the Football Association's General Appeal Panel and the Lawn Tennis Association's Disciplinary Panel.

Before coming to the Bar, Jon taught Property and International Environmental Law at Cambridge University whilst completing a PhD in International Environmental Law at Queens' College.

Sport

Jon is developing his practice in relation to sports disciplinary and commercial law alongside other sports-related matters, both as specialisms and as they interact with other areas of his practice such as public, regulatory, licensing, personal injury and human rights. Jon sits as a Member of both the Football

Association's General Appeal Panel and also the Lawn Tennis Association's Disciplinary Panel.

A keen sportsman, Jon played semi-professional football for a number of years after his release from the professional game. As a student, he captained the Cambridge University football side and gained representative honours in badminton while competing at a national level. He also represented Northamptonshire County Cricket Club at youth level.

As such, Jon is well placed to advise and provide assistance in relation to various legal issues while at the same time having a profound understanding of the unique nature of sporting clients' needs and the wider sporting industry.

Recommendations

"Jonathan is an exceptionally bright barrister with sound judgement." Legal 500 2024 (Environment)

"Jonathan is brilliant in his delivery and examination in inquiry, whilst maintaining a very approachable and down-to-earth manner with his instructing legal officer and clients.
