"Superb technical knowledge, authoritative, very responsive. An excellent advocate who is always in control and is respected by the judiciary."

The Legal 500 2023

Nicola's practice is people focused. It spans public and human rights law and Court of Protection work and extends to common law and regulatory and disciplinary law. She is recommended for both Administrative and Public Law (The Legal 500 2022) and for Court of Protection and Community Care work (The Legal 500 2022 and Chambers & Partners 2022). She has been appointed to the Treasury Panel of Junior Counsel (B Panel) and the Equality and Human Rights Commission Panel of Counsel (C Panel).

She has been involved in some landmark cases of the last few years: JT v FTT [2018] EWCA Civ 1735 which overturned the same-roof rule bar on criminal injury compensation and Tavistock v Bell [2021] EWCA Civ 1363, the challenge to the referral of trans young people under 18 for prescription of puberty blockers.

Nicola has appeared as sole and junior counsel in the Court of Appeal, the Court of Protection, the County Court, the High Court, and various disciplinary tribunals. She will shortly be appearing (led by Jenni Richards KC) in the Supreme Court.

Prior to coming to the Bar, Nicola spent eleven years as a political news journalist at the BBC where she worked as a programme editor on the BBC1 Politics Show and Radio Four's Today, and as a senior producer on Newsnight.
