“Michael is brilliant in trials, gives excellent written advice, is very approachable and willing to help.” The Legal 500 2023

Michael practises across the full range of chambers’ civil liability and commercial work with a particular interest in cases where fraud is alleged or suspected.

He undertakes work in insurance fraud, personal injury, clinical negligence, commercial and financial services, sports law, costs, and regulatory and disciplinary matters. He represents claimants and defendants in trials, joint settlement meetings (JSMs) and all interim hearings. He has a substantial paperwork practice.

He regularly acts as sole counsel in significant brain and spinal cord injury cases with a value pleaded in excess of £1m, as well as being led in higher value cases.

He has substantial experience of working as part of a larger team on high-profile and sensitive investigations, particularly involving financial institutions, and is currently instructed in a complex banking investigation.

Michael graduated with first class honours in Law, and the prize for the top student pursuing a career at the Bar. He was previously employed by a leading city boutique law firm in the business crime and commercial litigation departments. He also spent time working on policy development for a human rights non-governmental organisation (NGO), campaigning for fairer justice systems.

-- Employers' Liability

Michael appears in the County Court, High Court and Court of Appeal, dealing with all aspects of employer's liability matters.

He has extensive experience across the full range complex and catastrophic injury work, including serious brain and spinal cord injuries, as well as complex regional pain syndrome, often with life altering consequences. He is regularly asked to advise on tactics and expert evidence in conference and writing. He is particularly sought after for cases involving allegations of fraud and fundamental dishonesty as well as cases involving complex medical evidence.

Much of his work is pleaded in excess of £1m.

Cases of note

- L v KFF - Acting as sole counsel for the successful defendant in two-day multitrack trial, having advised from the outset. The claim was dismissed following robust cross examination of the claimant. The defendant rightly rejected multiple Part 36 offers at a significantly reduced value.
- K v D - Acting for the defendant in a liability admitted quantum matter. The claimant valued the claim in excess of £100,000. The matter settled shortly after service of detailed counter schedule for just £36,000.
- G v (1) SRM LTD (2) - Successful defence of an accident alleged to have taken place on a building site during the course of the employment, whilst under the joint control of a principle and sub-contractor.
- F v M - Acting for the defendant at joint settlement meeting. Substantial six figure claimed settled for less than half the pleaded value shortly before trial.
