"She is a very strategic thinker, has exceptional in depth knowledge of her field with a very good client manner." The Legal 500 2022

Qualified in England and Wales and Republic of Ireland, Katherine's practice spans public and human rights law, disciplinary/ regulatory, EU, employment and commercial law. She has particular expertise in appellate advocacy and in domestic and international equality law. Katherine's cases are often at the cutting edge of the intersection between public and private law.

Katherine is described in directories as "the right person to go to with a difficult and novel point of law" (The Legal 500); "outstanding, confident, direct and eminently approachable" (The Legal 500) who "can think through cutting-edge issues of law in an impressive way" (The Legal 500); "very much in control of a complex brief" (Chambers and Partners) with "expertise that is so wide-ranging" (Chambers and Partners); "Professional, cooperative, experienced, and personally very kind" (Chambers and Partners).

Katherine works for a wide range of clients: from government departments, HMRC and local authorities to trade unions; individuals to multinational companies, insolvency professionals and receivers. She is a graduate of Harvard Law School's LL.M programme and former stagiaire at the Court of Justice of the European Union.

Katherine was shortlisted for Public Law Junior of the Year at The Legal 500 UK Bar Awards 2019 and 2022.

Katherine has particular expertise in managing class action equalities litigation.

Cases of note:

- R (Coll) v Secretary of State for Justice* [2017] UKSC 40 - challenge to the distribution of women only bail hostels around the UK on Equality Act 2010 grounds.
Judgment
- Ince Gordon Dadds LLP v Tunstall* UKEAT/0141/19/JOJ - Acted for a law firm in the context of employment claims brought against a firm in administration and various individuals and the transferee. The case considers the impact on legal professional privilege of the continuation of proceedings against the individuals and transferee during the stay of proceedings against the firm in administration.
Judgment
- Graysons Restaurants v Jones* [2019] EWCA Civ 725 - Leading Court of Appeal case on whether equal pay claims could be claims for arrears of pay under Part XII of Employment Rights Act 1996 and how it interrelates with the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 ("TUPE").
Judgment
- McCloud v the Lord Chancellor and Sargeant v the Lord Chancellor* [2018] EWCA Civ 2844 - Acted for the Ministry of Justice and Lord Chancellor in long-running class action discrimination and equal pay claims challenging the 2015 public service pension reforms. Acted at the Employment Tribunal (ET), Employment Appeal Tribunal (EAT) and Court of Appeal.
Judgment
- R (AB) v CD and others* [2021] EWHC 741 Fam - Acted for Cafcass in case concerning lawfulness of approach to prescribing puberty blockers.
Judgment
Link
- Billy Graham Evangelistic Association v A sports stadium - Acted for a sports stadium challenged by the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association following the cancellation of an event in 2020, planned prior to Covid-19. The challenge raised novel issues of statutory and European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR) discrimination law, application of the Human Rights Act 1998, whether a sports stadium could be a public authority and the law of specific performance.
- R (MM) v DWP* [2013] EWCA Civ 1565 - Systemic challenge to the process for assessing Employment and Support Allowance. The claimants alleged that the DWP processes failed to make reasonable adjustments for people with mental health disabilities because a GP's report was not automatically requested. The Court of Appeal partially upheld the DWP's appeal and the Upper Tribunal on remission found that the adjustment claimed was not a reasonable adjustment and there had been no failure to make reasonable adjustments in DWP's processes.
Judgment
- Saad v University Hospital Southampton NHS Trust* [2014] UKEAT 0184 - Acted for a special registrar in cardiothoracic surgery in his EAT appeal as to whether he was a disabled person or not. The EAT considered the potential impact on the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNCRDP).
