Gethin Thomas has a multidisciplinary practice, encompassing public law & human rights, environment & energy, procurement, commercial, financial services, regulatory and planning law.

Reflecting the breadth of his practice, Gethin has acted as sole or junior counsel in proceedings in the Court of Appeal, and in the High Court (in the Administrative Court, Commercial Court, Queen's Bench Division, and Technology & Construction Court).

He is ranked as a 'rising star' in environmental law by the Legal 500.

Gethin is a member of the Attorney General's C Panel of Counsel, and of the Welsh Government's B Panel of Junior Counsel.

Gethin graduated from the University of Oxford with a First Class law degree. Before joining the bar, Gethin worked as a research assistant in public law at the Law Commission for two years. Latterly, Gethin interned at the human rights charity JUSTICE. He worked in the administrative justice team.

Gethin is a contributing editor to the Environmental Law Bulletin (published by Sweet & Maxwell). He has also contributed to the latest editions of Wilmot-Smith on Construction Contracts (4th edition, May 2021), and Shackleton on the Law and Practice of Meetings (15th Edition, November 2020).

Regulatory and Disciplinary

Gethin has a broad regulatory and disciplinary law practice. He regularly acts on behalf of regulatory bodies in judicial review claims. His experience includes:

- Acting in proceedings before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal, and advising on Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA) regulatory issues.
- Acting in proceedings before the Council for Licensed Conveyancers Adjudication Panel, including recently in a 5-day trial in a complex matter involving breaches of anti-money laundering rules (appearing as sole counsel against a KC).
- Advising the Financial Ombudsman Service as consultant counsel.
- Advising the Office for Students as consultant counsel.
- Acting on behalf of the Civil Aviation Authority, in a successful strike out application of a claim in relation to a decision to provisionally suspend a pilot's medical certificate in the High Court.

Gethin also gained experience of regulatory law whilst working in electoral law and misconduct in public office at the Law Commission.
