"A prolific barrister who does a lot at a high level." "The go-to silk for complex matters." (Chambers and Partners)

Zane Malik KC is authorised to sit as a Judge of the High Court. He is also a Recorder and sits as a Judge at the Crown Court. He is a Deputy Judge of the Upper Tribunal (IAC) and a Judge of the First Tier Tribunal (IAC).

He is a leading barrister specialising in public law and human rights, with an emphasis on immigration, asylum, nationality, EU and regulatory law.

Before taking silk, he spent 9 years on the Attorney General's Panel of Counsel to the Crown advising and representing the government along with his established private practice. He acts regularly at the highest levels, both for and against the government.

He has particular expertise in appellate work and Judicial Reviews. He appears regularly at the Upper Tribunal, the High Court, the Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court. He has conducted over 250 substantive appeal hearings at Supreme Court and Court of Appeal level. The Upper Tribunal's judicial reporting committee (IAC) has reported over 75 of his cases to be cited as precedents in other cases. His reported cases at the High Court are over 80. He often leads other barristers and legal teams in complex cases before the higher courts.

He contributes regularly to legal journals and other practitioners' sources, and often speaks at legal conferences and professional development events.

Immigration and Business Immigration

Zane has extensive experience of immigration and asylum work. He has represented both individual applicants and the government in some of the most high-profile and landmark cases on the subject.

His current practice focuses on business and commercial aspects of Immigration law. He has broad experience advising and representing the government, national and multinational businesses, high net worth, and highly skilled individuals. This includes those falling within Tier 1 (investors, entrepreneurs and highly skilled migrants), Tier 2 (skilled migrants, intra-company transfers, support persons and ministers of religion) and Tier 5 (temporary workers). He also advises and represents educational institutions and international students, falling within Tier 4. His experience includes advising and representing individuals seeking entry or settlement in the United Kingdom under various other categories of the Immigration Rules (such as, family members, partners, parents, children, stateless individuals, workers and business and family visitors).
