Regulatory and Disciplinary

Daniel's regulatory practice is a wide one, involving a host of medical and other professional regulators. He appears in the High Court in respect of appeals and extensions to suspension orders. He also regularly appears before various regulatory tribunals on registration and disciplinary matters. Daniel has recently been appointed as a panel member on the Football Association's Safeguarding Review Panel. In that role, he appears as a member of the panel determining safeguarding and disciplinary matters referred from all levels of the football league.

Cases of note:

- Acting in the High Court on an application to extend a suspension order on behalf of the Health and Care Professions Council in respect of a case of a paramedic accused of serious sexual offences.
- Acting on various appeals before the Registration Appeal Committee of the General Dentistry Council.
- Acting as junior council in disciplinary proceedings brought by the Solicitors Regulatory Authority in respect of a solicitor accused of significant negligence and misconduct.
- Advising a regulator in respect of reviewing various regulatory decisions of medical tribunals.
- Advising and taking witness statements pro bono for disciplinary proceedings before the Disciplinary Panel of the British Horseracing Authority in respect of a case of suspected horse doping.
- Advising a regulator on the interpretation of EU and immigration law in the context of registration applications.
- While a judicial assistant at the Supreme Court, Daniel assisted with a number of cases relating to regulatory and disciplinary law. Those cases included: Elefterescu v The Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons [2020] UKPC 6 concerning an appeal against a veterinary surgeon being struck-off for disgraceful conduct.
