"A razor-sharp advocate, effortless in his delivery of the most complex points." Chambers and Partners

Shaman specialises in costs and litigation funding together with a broader practice in commercial and common law litigation and group action work. He appears regularly in the High Court and the Senior Courts Costs Office, often involved in appellate work or complex points of principle and injunctive relief. His recent involvement in group action work includes the claims against the regulatory bodies in the sport of rugby in the concussion litigation and the civil claims arising out of the Grenfell tower tragedy. He has experience of representing professional sports players in anti-doping proceedings and has contributed to the editorial work towards the regulation of British Wrestling. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, having specialised in international arbitration, and receives instructions domestically and internationally. He is a frequent speaker at key seminars on the costs and funding calendar and a contributing editor to Thomson Reuters' "Costs & Funding following the Civil Justice Reforms: Questions & Answers", The White Book. He is a Lead Advocacy Tutor for Lincoln's Inn and has been ranked by the Directories as a leading junior for many years. He is the editor of our bi-annual Costs Newsletter (3+9 = Costs) and is joint-head of Chambers' Costs Group. He is appointed as a member of Chambers' Management Board and separately appointed as a school Governor. He is a qualified Mediator and is an appointed Deputy District Judge.

Construction

Specifically arising out of the Grenfell Tower tragedy, Shaman has experience of the Building Regulations, Approved Document B, and The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005. This experience is complemented by Shaman's experience at common law including landlord and tenant, contractual disputes generally, insurance work and claims for compensation (whether arising out of injury or not). He is well placed to engage in cladding and other building defect disputes.

Cases of note

- Sid-Ali Atmani and 84 others v (1) Royal Borough of Kensington & Chelsea (2) The Royal Borough of Kensington & Chelsea Tenant Management Organisation Limited [Ongoing] - The Grenfell Tower fire tragedy resulted in the death of 72 people. It has proved to be a landmark moment in fire and building safety and construction method and may yet be a landmark case for principles of compensation in an injury claim arising out of a tort. Shaman's clients (led by Susan Rodway QC) are the only claimants to have articulated their claims in a particulars of claim being a vast document asserting duties arising out of common law and statute as well as misfeasance in public office, and claiming for aggravated and exemplary damages in addition to compensation.
