"Her knowledge and experience far exceeds her years. Scarlett is equal parts passionate and pragmatic and is the complete package."
- Chambers and Partners 2024

"Scarlett is exceptionally bright. She has a meticulous approach to getting to the bottom of very complex issues, and provides advice that is both legally and commercially sound." - The Legal 500 2024

"She is excellent with clients and clearly really cares about her work. Someone that will definitely fight her corner - a tenacious advocate" - Chambers and Partners 2024

Scarlett Milligan is a sought-after junior barrister who is regularly praised for being skilled beyond her level of call, for her diligence and commitment to her cases, and for her "meticulous" approach to case preparation and analysis. She has a broad practice in public law, inquests and inquiries, and in civil claims for negligence, breaches of the Human Rights Act 1998, and other tortious wrongdoing.

She is recognised in the leading legal directories in the areas of administrative law and human rights, inquests and public inquiries, and personal injury.

In all areas of her practice she maintains a balance in acting for both claimants and defendants, with her clients encompassing individuals, organisations, government, and foreign states.

She is Junior Counsel to the Crown (Attorney General's B Panel, appointed September 2023 following three years as a C Panellist in 2020-2023).

Scarlett has experience of large-scale litigation, being led, and acting as sole counsel. Clients repeatedly laud her attention to detail and meticulousness, as a result of which she is often instructed as sole counsel in significant cases which are high profile, high value, and have complex legal and/or factual backdrops.

Areas of expertise

Administrative and Public

Clinical Negligence and Personal Injury
Civil Liberties and Human Rights
Inquests and Inquiries
Regulatory and Disciplinary
Professional Negligence

Regulatory and Disciplinary

Scarlett acts in an array of regulatory and proceedings (whether at the initial hearing or in subsequent challenges). Her broad practice means she is equally adept at witness handling, dealing with evidential intricacies and difficulties, and advancing or defending public law challenges to regulatory and disciplinary decision making. She is known for her ability to navigate the sensitive issues that arise in such proceedings without distracting from or diluting the strong legal arguments that claimants and defendants need to make.

Scarlett also has experience defending legal professionals against a variety of professional allegations, including claims of negligence and fraud. This has extended to advising and acting in/against vexatious claims and vexatious litigants (particularly when brought against legal professionals), proceedings for general civil restraint orders, and contempt of court proceedings.
