The Organisation: 39 Essex Chambers

39 Essex Chambers is a leading barristers' chambers with offices in London, Singapore and Kuala Lumpur. Chambers is made up of 161 barristers, of whom 56 are King's Counsel, along with a staff team of 51.

Our barristers work in a wide range of sectors and practice areas of law, specialising in Commercial, Construction, Civil Liability, Sport, Planning, Environment, Property and Public Law. We work throughout the UK and internationally.

In all of our work we aim to provide an excellent, efficient service to all of our clients, giving sound practical advice and explaining legal issues in clear terms. We are friendly, approachable and work as a team with our clients and their other professional advisers. Our barristers and staff are committed to equality and fairness in all aspects of their work and to ensuring everyone we deal with is treated with dignity and respect.

The Role: Assistant Practice Manager – Public Law

Reporting to a Senior Practice Manager, you will provide a full range of practice management and administrative support including diary and fee management.

This is a fabulous opportunity for someone wanting to advance or pursue a practice management career. You may have previous experience in a barristers' chambers or other professional services environment, or be a bright graduate looking to start your career. The team support over 50 leading public law practitioners and their work is fast-paced, challenging and interesting. Joining a friendly and experienced team, you will be well supported with excellent opportunities for development and advancement.

Key Responsibilities:

- Diary and Practice Management
- Fees and Financial Management
- General Support

Diary and Practice Management:

- To assist the Senior Practice Manager and Practice Manager with the diary and practice management of the members of the team, including recording instructions, creating new cases and new contacts, and maintaining all existing records.
- Communicating with instructing solicitors and clients by telephone, fax, email or in person in a professional and timely manner relating to all aspects of work for Counsel.
- All aspects of diary work, including fixing hearings, conferences and advising Solicitor's / Counsel's availability.
- Allocating new work in accordance with Chambers' procedures and standards, and under the direction of the Senior Practice Manager and Practice Manager.
- Liaising with the tribunals, courts and other bodies, including lodging documents at court.
- Fixing court hearing dates.
- Assisting the Practice Assistants when required in tasks such as court runs, bundling, general printing.
- Maintaining high levels of client service and administrative standards generally.

Fees and Financial Management:

- Agreeing fees for advisory work, inquiries and hearings (written advisory work, consultations and brief fees), under the supervision of the Senior Practice Manager and Practice Manager.
- Recording fees for work done, processing outstanding fees and billing where appropriate.
- Confirming in writing, where necessary, all agreements made on fees for work done, or estimates for work to be done.
- Chasing outstanding fees (when credit control encountered with specific clients).

General Support

- Participating in the business development and marketing of Chambers, including assisting the Marketing Team in the administration and delivery of practice team events.
- Attendance at Chambers' and clients' functions as required.
- Assistance in other areas of Chambers' practice.
- Administrative support for the Senior Practice Management team.
- Reporting any errors, problems or mistakes which may give cause for concern or complaint by, or on behalf of, any barrister or client.
- Contribute to and help build a strong team with good relationships and high levels of communication.
- Play an active role in team and staff meetings.

Key relationships:

- Barristers and other practice managers in the team.
- External clients.

The Candidate (Person Specification)

We are looking for a candidate who has the following:

1. Excellent communication skills (verbal and written) and good numeracy skills.
2. Ability to multi task and operate within a fast-paced and demanding environment.
3. A confident and positive attitude.
4. Ability to work on own initiative as well as part of a team.
5. Good IT skills, including Microsoft Office.
6. Demonstrable interest in the practice areas covered by our Public Law team.
7. Preferably 3 A-level qualifications equivalent (A* to C desirable) or equivalent, or relevant degree standard qualification.
8. Previous experience in a barristers' chambers or other professional services environment (preferred).

The above person specification criteria, where appropriate, may be demonstrated through extra-curricular activities or voluntary work rather than formal employment.

Our London office is open Monday to Friday from 8:00am to 6:30pm.

Flexibility around working times, including being available to work outside usual office hours (mornings and evenings), is required. You will be required to work on a shift system basis between 8:00am and 6:30pm.

Although most of our team work a mix of in-office and home working, we are predominantly office based. We aim to be as flexible as we can, taking into account the role and the needs of the business as well as individual preferences and circumstances. Following a successful office-based probation period, this can be a hybrid role with the opportunity to work 80:20 (office: home) working.

What Chambers can offer:

- A full time and permanent role.
- A starting salary of c. £30,000, plus discretionary bonus scheme (post probation).
- 23 days' holiday increasing by 1 day each year to a maximum of 25 days, plus bank holidays.
- Following a successful probationary period, our discretionary benefits include access to our private medical scheme, ride to work scheme, private GP service, life assurance, Employee Assistance Programme, interest-free season ticket loan, discretionary bonus scheme, annual eye test along with additional paid annual leave including ½ day birthday leave, 2 days religious holidays leave, and 2 days annual slow travel leave.
- Chambers offers a group pension scheme paying 6% of salary into an individual's pension scheme where the employee contributes at least 3% of their salary. This is available after successful completion of a probationary period.

- A modern and spacious office space with showers, bike storage and games room.
- Our office is well situated. We are close to tube and overground stations, as well as Lincoln's Inn Fields (the largest public square in London).
