

How will Brexit affect the public sector? Thursday 21st July 2016

The Speakers:

Peter Village QC
Jenni Richards QC
Justine Thornton QC
Deok Joo Rhee
Sian Davies
Rose Grogan
Jonathan Darby

This half day seminar will address:

- How will Brexit affect local authorities' powers and duties towards EEA nationals in relation to adult and child social care and housing?
- How will Brexit affect public procurement and state aid?
- How will Brexit affect planning & environmental law?

Please see following page for the full agenda

Venue: 39 Essex Chambers,
81 Chancery Lane,
London, WC2A 1DD

Timings:

12pm – 1pm: Registration and Lunch
1.00pm – 3.15pm: Seminar
3.15pm – 3.30pm: Q&A
3.30pm: Tea & Coffee

To reserve a place please contact: Beth Williams:
beth.williams@39essex.com / 0207 832 1155

39 Essex Chambers is accredited by the Law Society and the Bar Council to provide CPD accredited courses. This course is accredited for 1 CPD hour

12.00pm–1.00pm: Registration and Lunch1.00pm–1.45pm: How will Brexit affect local authorities' powers and duties towards EEA nationals in relation to adult and child social care and housing?

Jenni Richards QC and Sian Davies

- What assessments will local authorities be obliged to conduct if EEA nationals cease to have a right to reside in the UK?
- Discussion will include the interplay and overlap with human rights grounds for support and central government support provision.

1.45pm–2.30pm: How will Brexit affect public procurement and state aid?

Deok Joo Rhee and Rose Grogan

Public Contract Regulations 2015

- what are the stress points?
- what may change post Brexit?

Litigation strategies pending Brexit

- Interpretative principles, preliminary rulings - where next?
- Remedies

State Aid

- Implications on ERDF grant funding applications and recovery
- Notification
- EU enforcement
- Current disputes

2.30pm–3.15pm: How will Brexit affect domestic planning and environmental law?

Peter Village QC, Justine Thornton QC and Jonathan Darby

- The different scenarios for domestic law (European Economic Area or other)
- The greater importance of international environmental law
- The status of previous decisions based on EU law
- The need for transitional laws
- Areas of environmental law under immediate pressure, including waste, EIA, habitats, birds and clean water habitats
- The principles governing any future reshaping of UK domestic law
- Changing strategic and reform priorities on the planning agenda, including airport expansion, devolution, impacts on calculations of need and housing requirements
-

3.15pm-3.30pm: Q&A