PAUL HAYES QC | 39 Essex Chambers

Paul Hayes QC is a Barrister & Arbitrator and holds the degrees of Bachelor of Laws (LLB) from the Queensland University of Technology and Master of Studies (MSt) from the University of Cambridge, where he was also a Visiting Fellow in 2005-2006 (Faculty of Law, Lauterpacht Centre for International Law and Wolfson College). He also holds a Diploma of International Commercial Arbitration (DiplC Arb) from the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators in London, where he is also a Fellow (FCI Arb). He was called to the Bar in Australia (New South Wales, 1990; Victoria, 1997) and in England (Lincoln's Inn, 2005) and took Silk in 2017.

Paul is a member of 39 Essex Chambers (London, Kuala Lumpur and Singapore) and Dever's List (Melbourne) and practises predominantly in international commercial arbitration (accepting briefs as Counsel, or appointments as Arbitrator), commercial & equity litigation, sports law, defamation, insurance and international law (public and private) and has appeared in a wide variety of cases (ranging from large-scale complex commercial matters to defamation jury trials and sporting disputes) in multiple curial and arbitral jurisdictions, including the Court of Arbitration for Sport. He is also a Senior Fellow in the Faculty of Law at the University of Melbourne where he teaches international sports disputes resolution as part of the Melbourne Law Masters program.

Paul Hayes has been a contributing author in various authoritative arbitration and sports law textbooks and has published several legal journal articles and numerous international and national conference papers on a wide range of sports law and general legal topics. He is the Founder and Editor of the Australian and New Zealand Sports Law Journal (Wolters Kluwer, CCH), Vice-President of CommBar (the commercial law association of the Victorian Bar), a member of the Victorian Bar Council and a member of the World Rugby Anti-Doping Judiciary Panel, the International Biathlon Union Court of Arbitration and a Co-Opted judge on the Fédération Internationale de l'Automobile International Court of Appeal.

In his past life as an athlete, Paul played premier grade Rugby Union in Australia for GPS Rugby Club in Brisbane and represented Australia in World Cup competition in the sport of Bobsleigh. Paul also contributes Op-Ed articles from time to time to The Australian and The Times in London on issues concerning the law and politics and has been named in the 2016-2021 editions of Who's Who Legal as a leading international lawyer in the specialty of sports law.

CLIFFORD J. HENDEL | Hendel IDR

Clifford J. Hendel is Founder of the Madrid law firm of HENDEL IDR.

A dual US-French national, he commenced his career as judicial law clerk in a U.S. federal district court, and for the subsequent decade practiced corporate and financial law in the New York and Paris offices of a leading global firm.

For the next two decades, he was partner of a leading Spanish boutique, based in Madrid, during which time the focus of his practice evolved from international transactions towards international dispute resolution, both as counsel and neutral.

He is particularly active as a sports arbitrator. Currently Deputy Chair of the FIFA Dispute Resolution Chamber (DRC) and an arbitrator of the FIBA Basketball Arbitral Tribunal (BAT), he was for several years an active member of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS).

He is admitted to practice in New York (Attorney), England and Wales (Solicitor, non-practicing), Paris (Avocat, non-practicing) and Madrid (Abogado).
