Peter Rees QC is an Arbitrator, Mediator and Counsel at 39 Essex Chambers. He specialises in international commercial arbitration and is widely recognized as one of the leading practitioners in this area in the world. He has been recommended as a leading expert in international commercial arbitration, commercial litigation, construction and energy by various directories including Chambers UK, Chambers Europe, the Euromoney Guides to the World's Leading Litigation Lawyers and Experts in Commercial Arbitration, Legal 500 UK, Legal 500 Asia Pacific, Who's Who Legal and Chambers Global.

Peter has extensive experience, both as arbitrator and counsel, in handling large scale and complex disputes in many industrial and commercial sectors and diverse jurisdictions and subject to a wide variety of governing laws. In addition he has deep knowledge in anti-bribery and corruption law, having led one of the teams in the largest and most extensive corporate internal investigation into bribery and corruption, namely the investigation into Siemens.

Peter Rees QC was Legal Director and a Member of the Executive Committee of Royal Dutch Shell Plc from 2011 until 2014. In that role he had ultimate responsibility for the Shell global legal function. Prior to joining Shell Peter spent 27 years at Norton Rose, including 8 years as Head of Global Dispute Resolution, and 5 years as a litigation and arbitration partner at Debevoise & Plimpton.
