PRACTICE AREAS

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

He has extensive experience of international arbitration and mediation. Arbitration experience includes both representing parties and acting as counsel in ad hoc arbitrations and arbitrations under ICC, SIAC, SCMA, LCIA, LME, UNCITRAL, GAFTA, FOSFA and LMAA rules. Denys has also litigated challenges to arbitration awards on the grounds of alleged misconduct. He has also sat as an arbitrator, and has been appointed as sole arbitrator in a number of SIAC and SCMA arbitrations. He is also a CI Arb Accredited Mediator.

BANKING & FINANCE

BANKING

Denys' experience relates to letters of credit used in trading of oil and other commodities, and guarantees used in shipbuilding and construction cases. Denys has advised on whether payment under letters of credit can be prevented, and has acted for various banks on trade finance matters.

FRAUD

Denys has handled a number of fraud cases, including one involving the theft of several thousand tons of fuel oil inside Iran. This case resulted eventually in the jailing of the chief fraudster, Mr Moussavi for contempt of court in relation to his breach of a Search order.

COMPETITION LAW

Denys has been instructed in a series of cases for a very large offshore construction client involving advice on EU and UK anti-trust law, and filings with the OFT and the EU. Denys has also advised on the application of competition law to the shipping industry, including liner conferences and pooling arrangements. He has also advised on access to "essential facilities", and the legality of joint selling arrangements in the context of the sale of crude oil from newly developed fields. Denys has also acted for the Korean Shipbuilders Association in connection with a complaint concerning subsidies which it was alleged by the European Shipbuilders Association were unfair.

SECTORS

ENERGY

OIL & GAS

Offshore oil and gas has formed a major part of Denys' practice over the last 20 years, and has involved contractors such as drilling companies Transocean and Hercules and general offshore construction companies such as McDermott, COOEC, EMAS, Swiber, and shipbuilders IHC. Denys' has also advised pipeline contractors on projects in regions as diverse as the Ukraine and Uganda.

COMMODITIES

Denys' main experience in this field relates to oil and gas trading with over 35 years experience. As part of the work I have done for oil and gas trading clients, I have developed a good understanding of derivatives, both exchange traded and OTC.

INFRASTRUCTURE

CARGO CLAIMS

Denys has handled numerous cargo claims relating to bulk, containerised and oil cargoes, and is very familiar with the insurance issues arising out of cargo claims.

INSURANCE

Denys has considerable experience of marine hull and cargo insurance, which includes the Jal Sea Condor total loss off south Africa. He has also handled a number of offshore oil and gas insurance matters, including cases involving loss of structures and questions concerning liability for defective design. Denys has also investigated a number of losses where the cause was not known, including loss of a subsea well, and he has a lot of experience of cargo insurance issues, including loss of oil in transit through Iran.
